

TENNESSEANS WILL AID STRICKEN JEWS
Week of June 21-28 to Be Set Aside for Campaign for Funds.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 7. (Sp.)—The people of Tennessee will be called upon during the week of June 21-28 to respond to an urgent appeal in behalf of stricken and starving humanity. Between the dates mentioned the American committee will conduct a nonsectarian campaign for funds for saving the lives of 800,000 children and 5,000,000 adults in Eastern and Southern Europe who are actually starving, innocent victims of war's aftermath.

The amount to be raised in Tennessee has been set at $250,000, the major portion of this amount to be provided by the four larger cities of the state, according to population. The campaign will be a whitewash affair and Tennesseeans who have established an unparalleled record for generous giving in all war and post-war campaigns are expected to meet their obligation to humanity by a spontaneous response.

While most of these stricken people are Jews, many represent the non-Jewish element, and for this reason the campaign is on a nonsectarian basis, with an opportunity for everyone to aid.

In Nashville alone will the appeal be made solely to the Jews, their leaders having decided not to make any formal appeal to the non-Jews here by reason of the support given by the non-Jews in the recent campaign for a greater Y. M. C. A. The Jews of Nashville have pledged themselves to raise Nashville's quota among themselves.

Tennesseeans are daily made familiar with the terrible conditions existing in that part of Europe which is crying for help from America. Press associations have many of their best correspondents assigned to tell the outside world of the great need of the suffering peoples and volumes have already been written about the suffering misery.

Tennesseeans are expected to help put this campaign over without delay.

The state's quota is $250,000.

The time is June 21-28.

(Sp.)—One of the youngest federal prisoners ever sentenced in the Knoxville district court was John Calvey, aged 13 years, who was sentenced to one year in the National Industrial Boys' school at Washington, D. C., on a charge of robbing a mail box. The case was heard at the May term of district court and on motion of United States attorney the case was continued for one year, to give the boy an opportunity to behave himself. He was surrendered to the federal authorities by his father.

"My boy," said Judge Sanford, "I am sorry to have to do this. I do not want you to think I am going to send you to jail. The place to where you are going is a nice place, the people are all interested in you and want you to be a good boy and grow into a good man. They will all help you, and I think you will like it. I sent another Knoxville young man there and he thanked me for doing it."
